Re: Alfred Smith v. Citigroup, Inc. et al, 12 CV 4158 (ILG)(SMG)

Dear Judge Glasser:

We represent defendant Citigroup, Inc. with respect to this case, which has been settled by all parties. While Your Honor dismissed this case by Order dated 8/29/13, that Stipulation and Order was submitted by counsel for the City defendants and did not include Citigroup.

Therefore, on 8/28/13 we submitted letter and a Stipulation and Order apparently incorrectly directed to Magistrate Judge Gold, which was executed by counsel for all appearing parties, those being, the plaintiff, the City defendants and Citigroup. Defendant Manhattan Apartments Services LLC did not appear. This Order has not been signed.

That stipulation, which has been modified to reflect that this request is directed to Your Honor, accompanies this letter. We request that this Stipulation executed by all parties be So Ordered and that the file reflect that all claims and cross claims by or against defendant Citigroup Inc. are discontinued with prejudice, as well.

Very truly yours,

Frances N. Hatch
